

Festival Rules and Information:

1. Hours: The craft show will run 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day. Music and games will continue later into the evenings and crafters are welcome to keep their booths open longer if desired.

2. Setup: Thursday, May 13th, 2010 6-9 p.m.
Friday, May 14th, 2010 6-8 a.m.

3. Displays: You must supply your own displays, tables, chairs, covers, etc.

4. Security: Overnight security is not provided. Each vendor exhibits all work at his own risk. The Festival is not responsible for damage, theft, or loss of items.

5. Parking: After unloading, please move vehicles from the exhibition areas into designated parking. Because of the stage location, booths located on 1st Ave NW will not be able to move cars into the area to dismantle and load until after 9 p.m. nightly. If you are located on 1st Ave NW and dismantle and remove your booth prior to the end of the festival, you will need to transport your items to your vehicle. Please plan for this.

6. Fees: No booth spaces will be held without completed application and booth fee paid at time of registration. $10.00 late fee applies after April 15, 2010. Booth fees are non-refundable.

7. Additional information:

No electricity or water is available

No yard sale items allowed

Event is held rain or shine vendors are responsible for providing weather protection for items.

No food items may be given away except as samples provided by food vendors.

Bake sale items require current Board of Health permit.

Absolutely no stakes may be driven into city streets, therefore, weights should be tied to tent legs if necessary. All chairs, coolers, boxes, merchandise, tables and such must be contained in your designated space. Please do NOT block sidewalks, walkways or doorways of stores that are open for business.

If your merchandise cannot fit into one space, we suggest that you consider two spaces.
